

THANK YOU

Dearest Tanuj,

Seeing your face brings me so much calm and being with you makes time fly in the best way. The moments I've spent with you have easily been some of my favourite ones last year. Even when we don't do anything at all, your presence alone makes me feel happier.

I love your calm mind - the way you think, the way you handle things, the way you are. I really do feel like I have a Batman boyfriend 😊 You may have tons of work and long nights, but even after all that, you still come back to your girlfriend and make her feel loved. That means so much to me bae.

I always want to shower you with love because you truly deserve it. Please always keep smiling, and don't forget to love yourself too. Always stay happy my dearest soul. I'm so happy and genuinely proud to be your girlfriend 💙

Happy 100 days, bae 😊

Love you to the moon and back bae ❤️
