

YOU'RE MY FAVORITE

Dearest Tanuj,

I know yesterday was a really long one - working till 2:30 isn't easy. I just want you to know how much I see and admire the way you show up, even on exhausting days like that.

I am so happy about your performance review too, and honestly, it just made me smile. You really are a superkeeper - at work and in life. The consistency, the effort, the way you handle responsibility... it's rare, and I'm genuinely proud of you.

Please eat well today, drink lots of water, take care of yourself, be gentle to yourself and love yourself more. Try to rest whenever you can because you really deserve it.

Sending you a lot of love and calm energy 💙 I love you so much bae

Always cheering for you,

Your
